GODPARENTS - Role and Qualifications:

The person to be baptized should be given a Godparent/Godparents. If you choose to have 2 Godparents, one must be a male and the other a female. A Godparent is a person who assists in Christian initiation setting a good example of what it means to be a faithful follower of Jesus Christ in and through the Catholic Church. Therefore, the Godparent must be at least 16 years of age, or older, baptized, received Holy Communion, confirmed and a practicing Catholic.

Baptized Christians from another denomination (non-Catholic) cannot be official Godparents but may be a Christian Witness at the Baptism along with a Catholic Godparent.
