LITURGY OF THE WORD 2025-2026

SUNDAY: YEAR A WEEKDAY - YEAR 1

First Reading: (Is 45:1.4-6).

The return of the people from exile – a return made possible by King Cyrus – is seen as a sign of God’s love for his people, Isarel, and of his lordship over all peoples.

Second Reading: (1 Thess 1:1-5).

Here we see Paul’s concern for the Christians at Thessalonica.

Gospel: (Mt 22:15-21).

This is the story of an effort by the enemies of Jesus to trap him into saying something incriminating.

MISSIONARIES OF TRANSFORMATION - OUR COMMITMENT TO GOD AND THE PEOPLE

Isaiah 45.1, 4-6; Psalm 96.1- 9; 1 Thessalonians. 1.1-5; Matthew 22.15-21

The Scripture today reminds us of our commitment to God and His people, and we are agents of transformation in our communities. Cyrus of Persia, as the agent of God, liberated Israel from the exile in Babylon (Isaiah 45:1, 4-6). St. Paul the apostle transformed the life of the people of Thessalonica who were undergoing harassment and persecution. The Thessalonian community responded to Paul’s proclamation of the Gospel with the practice of faith, works of charity, and steadfastness of hope in Lord Jesus Christ. (1Thessalonians 1:1-5).

Jesus was preaching in Jerusalem. The religious and political leaders, the Pharisees and the Herodians, were seeking to trap Jesus with the question of tax. Using the Roman coin with the image of Caesar and the inscription “Caesar, son of divine Augustus” they asked the question, “is it lawful or not to pay taxes to Caesar”. The answer of Jesus was “Give to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s” (Matthew 22:21). This insightful answer was about our commitment to God and people, and his commitment must take us far beyond civic obligations taking us seeking the Kingdom of God as the priority in life.

Proclamation of the Word of God and the establishment of the Kingdom of God is our mission. The missionary work of the Church is oriented toward the transformation of life and living situations in the world. The Catholic Church throughout the world observes this Sunday (October 18, 2026) as the World Mission Sunday. This is another reminder of our mission, and we are invited to support the mission work of the Church by our life of witnessing, prayers, and through financial contributions.

Our praiseworthy Christian life filled with love, mercy, kindness, compassion, and a spirit of forgiveness and service is a great missionary work. Prayer is the second means of missionary work as Jesus said: “Without me, you can do nothing.” We pray for all missionaries working in demanding and challenging situations. The third means of doing our missionary work is our financial support. Our preaching and teaching require financial support because the love of God can often be explained to the poor only by providing them with food, healthcare, education, and other means of livelihood. It reminds us that we are one with the Church around the world and that we are all committed to carrying on the mission of Christ, however different our situations may be.

Pope Francis, in his 2019 World Mission Day message said: “This missionary mandate touches us personally: I am a mission, always; you are a mission, always; every baptized man and woman is a mission.” Hence the Holy Father calls on all Catholics and the Church to revive missionary awareness and commitment. In his 2020 message our Holy Father wants us to discharge our mission duty by volunteering with prophet Isaiah “Here am I, send me” (6:8) as an agent of transformation. We are called and sent to be a missionary following the example of Jesus Christ, the missionary par excellence. Our commitment is to establish His Kingdom, the kingdom of truth and life, the kingdom of justice, love, and peace. Our commitment and selfless work can contribute towards such a transformed situation in our communities, nations, and the world at large.

May God bless all of us
Father Thomas Manninezath, CMI

OUR CONNECTION WITH THE DISCONNECTED

Evangelii Gaudium (The Joy of the Gospel) by Pope Francis in 2013 was on a New Evangelization - our witnessing today. In this context we shall reflect on our connection with the disconnected by personal witnessing. There are people today who are disconnected from the church, from sacraments, from faith once they professed. There are many reasons for this situation such as abuses; clashes with authority; painful individual experiences; church teachings and doctrines. How can we connect with those disconnected and distanced? Jesus, the missionary who was sent by the Father, brought such kind of people close to him, and their lives were transformed.

*Welcome to all our visitors and guests.
We wish you fruitful and relaxing days during your stay with us.*
